[5:59] Music.

[6:07] Look hey y'all hey this one i love people who i follow forever and i finally get the chance to talk and meet to them hey nick hi welcome to the boonie breakdown finally finally thank you for for having me I'm excited what's going on, oh man you know life at an all time motherfucking high, listen listen I get it that's some real shit I also feel like wow life be lifin like it's not fair for life to life right now because shit is just so fucking expensive right now too so it feel like a double whammy cause it's like life is doing it and then it's like but everything is high, yes yes Yes. It's not fair.

[6:58] For those who may not be familiar with you, can you introduce yourself?

This is Nick of Erotic Boudoir.

So I have a question because I know you sell the nasty things.

You sell the sex toys, but you're also funny as fuck on Instagram because the reel that you did, I must have sent this one to like 30 people where you were like sitting on the toilet. Yeah.

[7:21] That's some relatable shit because you know we talk safe sex and everybody should practice what their form of safe sex is but sometimes shit happens and sometimes there's no condom and sometimes the club gets shot up and sometimes you're sitting on the toilet trying to push them out you shoot all up shoot them up bang bang get all shot up sometimes that happens you know, sometimes it happens so funny as fuck black and digital mad people like this shit is funny, well thank you thank you i i try to my first this is my second tiktok page my first tiktok page got taken down because of some other funny nasty shit that i did so of course they took it down but this is my first my second page and i'm trying to get it back up so i'm like recycling a lot of um older the videos that I did before.

And I try to find the most absurd sound effects and relate it to something sexual in nature.

And truth be told, that particular sound effect is a hot marble dropped in a jar of mayonnaise.

[8:34] What? What?

[8:39] Who needs to record that?

Yes. Who would have asked to record that?

I'm an ASMR junkie, so I'm always looking at like the most unusual things being smashed or created or cut or like how they have chunks of sand being cut and, you know, but not from that person.

We hear. Because you know what my ASMR things that I like to de-stress and relax with?

I have three of them. them one soap cutting don't question me yes i also like the paint videos where they mix the paint to make like different colors i love that and i do love the sand or something carving videos, even though i do have tripophobia which makes my skin call like repeated patterns but i can still watch them cut that soap up into the tiniest little squares and shave it i love Love that shit. Love it.

Okay. Yes, absolutely. I'm also a pimple popper, blackhead, watcher.

That's what you use me. I can't do that.

Listen, it gets so good to me sometimes, my mouth starts to water. It's crazy.

It's so crazy. But I love, I'm the girlfriend that's like, turn around, let me see your back so I can pop those pimples.

Let me get that blackhead. I can't do it.

I can't do it. I'm the girlfriend like, you should go get a facial.

[10:08] I can't do it. I'll pay. I'll pay for it. Yeah, I can't.

Oh, my God. That used to be my mom. I used to hate being a teenager because everybody always like, you have good skin, which I do.

I'm grateful for the skin I have, but I do get blackheads.

It's rare that I get a pimple, right? But I get blackheads, so I get facials.

And I hate it. They hurt when she's doing all the extractions.

But when I was a teenager, my mom would be like, come here, lay here. And she would just be like pushing them out. And I'd be like, I hate it. There's probably trauma around that is why i don't like that thanks probably yeah probably is that trauma okay so now i gotta ask you we won't get to the naughty stuff, How did you become a dildo dealer? I'm so glad you asked.

[10:54] Well, first, my name is Nick. My name is Nicole. I go by Nick. I prefer Nick. Back in the day, I used to go by Nikki, but that was a little bit too childish. And I'm so much more masculine and tomboyish now. So Nick is my preferred. I'm your favorite dildo dealer, purveyor of all pleasures. I host different types of events in Philadelphia. Kink related um certainly adult in nature i host other uh events as well i manage an event space in philadelphia um i do bts photography for a videography group not jack's productions um i'm a support provider for special needs adults like i do a lot you do it all come on a renaissance woman I try I certainly try I believe in you but, erotic boudoir was started by my mom no way yes I love that.

[11:54] My mom is with all the shits. Okay. All the shits. And, um, it was ongoing. She started it because she wanted to find something easy, quote unquote, easy to do at home, you know, website do from home, the drop shipping, you don't have to pretty much, you know, do a whole lot. And after a year of her being in business, she wasn't getting the type of sales and revenue that as she was anticipating, she asked me to join. And here we are. She has since left the company now because she's up in age and retirement and things like that. And she doesn't want, she's never wanted to be in front of cameras and things like that, which is why a lot of people only saw MyFaith a lot of the time. There's a couple of interviews that's floating on Beyonce's internet with her and I together. But, you know, again, she is more in retirement age. She wanted to just be real chill at home. So she's like, listen, I'm going to leave the company. It's all yours. And I'm done. I'm done. That is so amazing. I love that. That was a curve that I did not see coming.

Nick's Journey: From Mom's Business to Erotica

[13:11] I love that, that out here creating generational wealth and building businesses is with your mother and for it to be a sex-based pleasure-based business is kind of amazing right like that's that's a rarity i'm sure not many folks can say that i'm sure someone else there might be some out there but not many folks can say that usually like my mom left me a dry cleaner and you're like nope nope nope not my mama so okay how long have you been doing this now now um erotic boudoir now has been in business it'll be eight years in july eight years let's do yeah we're gonna get to it what's your favorite sex toy.

[13:57] Because you get a lot because i'm gonna say what's your favorite before i ask this, i have favorites for different reasons okay list let's go so the original magic wand, it's just an og og gotta have one and i'm talking the corded version me too okay that thing is strong it's so funny because i have three of them right the rechargeable one this one and the original, but that OG one...

Ain't I like it? It's everything. Now, that one is a favorite of mine because it has the cord and because it's so strong.

And that particular one I keep in my truck.

[14:48] I was listening to myself say that just now.

I keep that one in my truck because I don't have to take off my clothes to feel it because it's so strong.

It's so strong. i've told this story the first time i used the og one i thought i was going to have a brain aneurysm because it was like all the blood left everywhere in my body and was going to my clit and i was like whoa so i do like you can use it over your underwear you don't need to put directly on your genitalia because you may die no if you die you die okay but yes that one is my favorite because it's so strong that stays in the car um then i do love um, clitoral suction toys but true suction not pulse air per se so like the rose is pulsing air it's not necessarily sucking on your skin but the womanizer and the satisfier actually stuck suck on your clit.

So I love those two for the suction, um, for clitoral stimulation and for penetration.

I love my snail vibe.

[16:11] The snail vibe will give you a blended orgasm because it provides clitoral stimulation, um, and vibration as well as internal vibration inside inside your vagina but the thing about the snail vibe is like a rabbit vibrator that has you know the stimulation at the top when you take the vibrator out of you the vibration from the ears it stopped or whatever the animal might be on the rabbit yeah the dolphin rhino you know, all types of fucking animals and shit right um the snail vibe it stays it keeps constant contact with your clitoris as it's going in and out so that thing like when i used it at that because i'm gonna try that because i'm not personally a fan of, sex toys that penetrate i'm all about the suction the vibrator honestly because i haven't found a good insertion one that i really vibe with so i wrote that one down.

[17:24] Now if i write it down write it down and that's the thing too it's like dildos like Like, now, I did have a moment where I had this suction cup dildo that I liked in the shower. Because you put it on the wall or put it on the tub edge. That one was cool. But then after a while, I was like, yeah. It ran its course. It was like porn for me. Like, I go in cycles with it. And then I just never used it. But I'm all about the suction, the vibrators. I'm personally not a big fan of the rose. I see why people come from the rose I get it I get why people like it but for me like the opening is so tiny and I just want more stimulation and and I want more like you're so stuck with having to hold it and it's just not a fave of mine I mean if you want to just hold it there you can um toys what i try to tell people is never let the packaging of a toy limit how you use the toy right so i've used my rose on dicks plenty of dick well i shouldn't say plenty like that but you know ain't no judgment.

Creative Toy Usage: Rose on Dicks

[18:42] So okay but i've used my rose on dicks before like what you put it on i never i never thought thought about putting the rose on a dick i've done a magic wand on the balls i've never thought about the rose now i've used the rose on my nipples i liked it there um some lube some lube because the entire surface of that rose is vibrating and doing all of the things a little bit of lube on the gooch area take it up and down the shaft circle the ball circle the head head all of those things you know float float it down towards the asshole just a little bit just a little bit my bad it's wet it's wet it's lit it's lit my bad.

[19:33] Y'all i i'm i'm i'm fucking with you but i'm not yeah i'm like i just never even occurred to me to put it on the penis and i've done it with other sex toys but it's not about the rose, yeah you gotta play put it on put it on the frenulum if you have an erect penis in front of you and you put the rose just on the frenulum while you take your other hand with some lube on it and just rub on the front part of the head while the rose is applying pressure to that frenulum, she's giving y'all the seeds, you'll thank me later trust me she's giving y'all the seeds listen you just mentioned lube lube get a bad rap I don't know why lube is your friend it don't mean your pussy can't get wet, sometimes that thing dry up if you do a marathon you might need to re-wet that motherfucker, okay lube is good for your hands if you're touching other places, faces i'm glad lube lube is amazing for all of the girlies that can't really have orgasms um with penetration if you use some lube you might actually have one oh.

[20:53] Regardless of how wet your pussy gets you might actually have one if you use some lube now you know what else i like right now dysphoria wellness cbd intimacy oil baby.

[21:08] Now listen patriarch gang already know i done told them listen y'all be y'all bad by that, that thing right there so yeah lube is and it smells good amazing amazing yeah get the lubes all the lubes so for people who are like okay i don't know can you give them a quick synopsis of the difference between like water-based silicone base yeah so water-based lube is excellent um for any sort of barriers that you're going to present right so water-based lube is good with latex condoms any sort of condoms um all toys It's compatible with latex toys.

I'm sorry, silicone toys, glass toys, metal toys, wood toys.

It's compatible with all those things, right? And water-based lube lubricates you in a way that it will protect you from having any sort of tears, any sort of micro tears, anally or vaginally or whatever, right? Right.

[22:11] Silicone based lube is something you never, ever, ever, ever, ever want to use with silicone toys.

If you use silicone based lube with silicone toys, what happens is it creates this friction on your toys and it breaks down and disintegrates your toys into these tiny little pieces. And a lot of times those tiny pieces will end up staying inside of your body. So very important.

Silicone or silicone ain't it. But silicone based lube is supremely, supremely special when you're having anal sex unprotected.

[22:54] OK, so no condom sex. Silicone base is the way to go. It lasts a very, very long time.

It doesn't dry up like water based lube does.

It doesn't pill, pill up and get like those little, you know, those little roly bowls.

I hate that. Yeah.

[23:15] So silicone is good for that. that and then the hybrid lubes that have the water and silicone um combined those are good i usually tell people just for unprotected sex and um glass toys metal toys again no silicone on silicone uh whatsoever um yeah that's pretty much it yeah i'm like get the lubes use the lubes people they even have like the things you can like um keep on your nightstand all fancy and warm the lube like it's so many things i'm sure but here's a cheat code if you don't feel like spending all the money for the things that are labeled still a lube dispenser and all these things get you a regular old soap dispenser pop a couple batteries in it put your lube inside the soap dispenser put your hand under it and you're good to go there you go cost savings things it is funny too because you talk about it like so much stuff is multi-purpose but when it's branded for something how it gets marked up because it's labeled a specific thing right so there you go right you don't have to do it but it's all these ways you can make it look more appealing if you don't want to pull like pull out the bottle me myself personally because Because I was trying to figure out a way to do the condom thing. And, like, so I had this really little cute little jar.

[24:44] It matches the decor of my bedroom. But it's stuffed with different condoms in it.

[24:49] Like, I doesn't want, yeah, it's easy to reach. I don't got to get up, get in a nice dance. Like, oh, it's right there on that. Right there in that little pumpkin thing. And that little piece of art that's over there. Yeah, just go over there and grab that. It's just right there. So it looks cute. you would never know unless you pick up the lid like oh shit this is stuffed with condoms so i have a question for you then boonie since you have this container full of condoms when was the last time you checked the expiration date on your condoms what a great question so very recently actually because i did go to pull a condom out when needed and he was like wait i was like what but he's like, this had expired in December of 2023.

[25:36] And I was like, Oh shit. Huh?

But then I went and looked and it was definitely, and because of the podcast, I get people who send me, like, I get way more condoms sent to me than I have time to use, first of all.

So I looked and I was like, oh, shit, these whole two things, they had expired at the end of 2023.

[25:59] So I did just, I sat down and I went through my naughty, so I have a responsible nightstand and a ratchet nightstand.

So I went through my ratchet nightstand and I was like oh let me charge up all my vibrators and and then I was like let me go through all these condoms let me check the lube expiration date so I threw out I need to actually buy some more lube because I threw out like three bottles of lube I threw out at least 50 condoms because they were all expired and I checked the ones I still had they were like 2027 2026 I was like okay we're good but that was a great question because people don't do that and I couldn't think of the last time so I'm actually grateful that he just happened to be ripping it that way like opening it and was like hey otherwise I would have been using an expired condom yeah so be sure if you're ones that if you're using condoms make sure you you check the expiration date a lot of times um it's printed in very very small print or because of how you're storing it it may have rubbed off but it still is imprinted on the packaging make sure you check that man get your microscope get you be like the old heads out here take a picture of it with your phone and pinch that picture open so you can see that good good expiration date check your condoms check your condoms you know what else god you know that's a good one because Because, you know.

[27:25] So much, I was so busy chucking the meat. I didn't look at the condom.

[27:33] Not the meat. Like, what's up in here? Ain't no scabs. Okay, okay, okay.

That's what I was looking. So good for him for his due diligence there.

Because, yeah, I just did not.

And honestly, before this was like a month ago.

Go before that i can't even think of the last time i had looked at like i was just like oh i got condoms in there so god thank you god a lot of people don't know yep i'm circling back to something because i forgot when we were talking about the sex toys have you tried because i seen it on your page the little machine with the dildo that's on the machine all right i don't know what it's called oh the fucking machine the maestro fucking machine yeah you've used it obviously i'm guessing.

[28:26] I've used it, but I haven't used it on myself.

I gave a demo and I used it on a very willing participant.

Okay. Because that's my thing. I always see it and I'm intrigued by it, but it just doesn't look as fun as it seems in theory.

Does that make sense? It looks like it should be a really great time, but it's also very intimidating.

Yeah. Yeah. Yeah. It can be very intimidating because of the speed of it.

And it's it's very unforgiving.

So it's going straight. There's no curve or anything like that.

So you've got to know your body, know your different angles.

But it also allows you to adjust the height of the apparatus.

It also allows you to adjust the angle of the apparatus.

So you have different ways that you can actually play with it.

But once people start going fast and you got to you have a very small, very, very small error of movement before it's like hitting something that it wasn't supposed to be. Not that hole.

That's what you're going to be saying. Not that hole.

[29:36] But if you have lube on deck and you're doing all the things the way you're supposed to, if it does slip, it's going to slip and maneuver just away from your body and not go into a different hole.

Hold forcefully so it takes some time to actually get used to the speed the pressure the controls like all of those different things so this is not one of those toys that you just open a box you wash it and you use it no read the instruction manual please because i'm like that thing looks like it fucks the shit out of you right because you always see the demos where it's like on the the highest speed at like oh my gosh and it's always like a nine inch ten inch dildo on it where it's like this is the biggest penis ever right intimidating even though intriguing but intimidating.

[30:30] When I used it, the young lady, she was sitting on a seat and, well, a chair, and she had her knees up like towards her armpits.

And so it was like direct, just wide open access right to her vagina.

And the seat that she was sitting on, it wasn't a cushion.

So it wasn't like she was sinking and her angles were changing.

Like she was just stationary. Yeah, she was flat and stationary.

So it was amazing. amazing it was it was a good time my next thing i would like to personally get is a piece of sex furniture like liberator or something like that's really what i want one of the big lounges with the pillows you can flip it that's that's on my hit list i see now that i've tried the yeah I have the saddle machine, which is like half a horse.

If you guys can think of the rodeos, the bucking cows and things like that, that you see at the bars and whatnot, it's half of that.

I could go get it. Oh, go get it.

Okay. You want to start recording real quick? I'm going to pause it.

All right. I'm going to go get it.

[31:50] Okay, we're back. And she has it. And on Patreon, you can see it.

Oh, wow. And I love it even has the thing you can hold.

Yes. This thing right here, this thing right here, this comes off.

So it's a remote control.

Oh, no. So the way I use it, because this is my own personal apparatus.

Um, I was sitting on it and I gave the remote to my guy at the time and I was sucking his dick while he was playing with the controls of the machine and he was standing in front of me.

[32:38] That's some next level sexy time. It's a good time.

That looks fun. So if somebody wanted to purchase this, how much does that cost?

This particular one um i think this one is 1700 if i'm not mistaken um but i do have a couple different versions of it i have a unicorn version that's about 2000 okay um and that comes with all different types of attachments this particular one comes with the dick attachment and then it has like a flat nubby attachment if you're not a fan of penetration um this is made for all body so men can sit on it too come on inclusivity all right sit on it to have a way you identify and that's not like an intimidating penis on it can you change that yes this is this is different um, let me hold it, put it right here. You could take it off and it has different size attachments that you can just put on here.

That is kind of cool, actually.

[33:52] It vibrates a lot, like at the speed and the intensity that it actually vibrates, the entire, your thighs are vibrating, your inner thigh, everything is vibrating.

Pleasing Men with Toys: The Stroker Approach

[34:02] And so like you're a whole lower that's like a whole body orgasm yes yes wow it's a good time and guys men a lot of times with these with women at least the men that i've that i've dealt with and dated um they enjoy using this more than something handheld because it's super easy just hold it in your hand and just push a button well now you've said something because i'm like listening and watching on patreon is like oh my god like her man is like playing with her and they fucking and using this what how would you tell ladies listening how can they ease their man who may be intimidated for no reason by using toys but what's the way like we can't walk in with the saddle right you can't bring that out that's intimidating right but like some ways that I know we talked about the rules, but what's some ways that we can get the men in your life excited about trying new things and putting some toys in here to spice things up?

[35:07] Um, one, by using your rose, like pull your rose out, use that on him. But also, ladies, let's not be selfish.

If you're going toy shopping for yourself, buy a stroker for your man, too.

They make strokers $20, $40, $10, BJ helpers and things like that.

You can have those things to start to role play, put some blindfolds on them.

Say, hey, you know, let's I want to blindfold you tonight.

And while you have that toy that you've already washed and it's out the packaging.

So he's and it's washed and it's washed, you know, like what you doing, what you got over there.

And then when you start to just play with his dick, play with his shaft, play with the head, all those different things. Put that stroke on his dick and see what happens.

You're going to see a reaction that you've never seen before.

But I tell women a lot of times role play to get them into into toys and really show them what those sensations feel like on their balls because or their balls and their dick, because the dick is nothing but an elongated clitoris.

So that part.

Yeah, I think I think like men get so intimidated by it, but they don't see that these could be helpers. Right.

Like it can you can get pleasure out of it, too. It's just not just for me.

And it's not me saying you aren't satisfying me.

It's just like, let's do something fun.

[36:32] That's all this is. It's not that. And so I will share.
I had surgery and I was not able to have sex.

Exploring Pleasure: From Surgery to Toys

[36:43] And somebody i was dealing with i got going because i'm just me and it was my fault and he's like don't kiss me girl because maybe you won't get started you can't and i was like, he's like don't know but i don't listen and i get started then his dick gets hard and he's like, so i'm like all right well i'll give you heads i'm giving head but then he's like because he's such a pleaser he felt like it just was weird we had never had an interaction where only he came and so he's like but you gotta come and i'm like i can't have sex and he was like go get let's go get your toys and this was new because we typically didn't do that and i'm like oh.

[37:29] And baby the way that man made me come without penetrating me and using my toys baby baby baby.

So you never know what you can unlock there.

And I appreciate the creativity.

Absolutely. Like ladies take the time out for the ladies that are dating men, take the time out to give a night to your man, hamper your man with pleasure, all of the things and the reasons and women are so unsatisfied.

And you know, he's not doing anything romantic for me the men they want to be romanticized too they want to have different things you know happen for them too they are human beings they have pleasure points and their bodies want to be touched in very sensual intimate very super intimate ways as well like kiss him, here's a I'm gonna give y'all a couple little little yeah I mean okay that's my feeling I'm gonna give y'all a couple yeah I mean couple jawns okay Try kissing your man on his knee.

[38:40] Try kissing him on his ankles, the back of his ankles, and the inside of his arm, the very small of his arm.

Take the time out to explore his body with your mouth, and it doesn't necessarily have to be your tongue.

You don't necessarily have to insert anything in your mouth.

It's not because I go straight for the eating ass. I'm an ass-eating aficionado. Oh, not you either.

Okay. Oh, yes, yes, yes, yes.

Give me those buns. Put them buns right here, okay?

I like putting my mouth on people. I like kissing. So she dropping knowledge.

Because most men have never been kissed outside of nipples, dick, and mouth.

Maybe neck. That's it.

[39:32] Take the time to explore his body with your mouth.

And i guarantee you're gonna get such a response it's mind blown i'm telling you you are just like you want him to explore your body and this can go heterosexual relationship whatever right like get to know what your partner likes that's all this is so yeah but i can yeah kiss a a nigga somewhere he ain't never been kissed before i had this one friend who i was kissing all on his nipples on his stomach doing all the regular degular stuff right and i went down to his feet and kissed his foot that man almost came immediately.

[40:25] He said, what the fuck was that? I said, that was your foot.

He said, I know it was my foot, but what did you put on it? That was my mouth.

He's like, oh, my God, Nick, that's crazy. Do it again. Do it again.

Do it again. Like, you'd be surprised.

[40:40] It's the same thing when somebody hit that spot that you didn't know it was a spot yet, right? And it's like, oh, wait a minute. Do that again. Yeah.

[40:49] I think some people need to explore a little bit more. And I think that's the fun thing about using toys.

And even if like you said it's not always a device or apparatus right it could be a feather it could be oil it could be a silk ties a restraint it could be so many things before you pull out an apparatus but if you want to just pull out the apparatus a small long bullet can go a long way Because what I do know about men's apprehensions is a lot of the time, they don't want another dick in the bedroom. Yes.

So don't pull out the dildo. Don't pull out anything that looks like a dick.

Don't pull out those things.

So you can have like a long bullet or, again, your rose or things like that.

And you can start off with those small things there and let them explore your body with the toys and you explore their body with the toys.

Have the conversations first.

Do not violate consent and have fun. Toys are meant to be played with.

Embracing Toys: For Fun and Exploration

[41:58] They will never replace a person. Have fun with your toys.

Yes, they will never replace a person. Perfect segue.

So we're going to the breakdown. I'm going to say a word.

[42:12] You can say the first thing that comes to mind. It could be a sound. It could be a phrase. It could be more words. Whatever. Okay. All right. So first one, Black women. Queens. Money. Hunger. Handcuffs. Fun. Fun. Lube. Slippery. Orgasms. Must. Penetration. Anal. Yes.

Anal Pleasure: Breaking Stigma

[43:08] I'm nodding. I've lost crack on my list. Okay. Last one. Booty holes.

[43:20] Love to be lit. I needed more than one word for that one. I saw the phrase. Come on now. So here's the thing, you know, before we really wrap up, you know, anal gets just such a bad rep.

And I think everything is not for every partner, right?

So like for me, that's not something I enjoy doing with everyone.

But when it's the right one, baby.

When is the right one right for for me anal orgasms are far more intense than any other orgasm i have right like and i remember the first time i had one i thought yeah i was like what the fuck just happened um so yeah not something i do all the time every day every partner some Some partners I don't like it with, but, when it works, it's glorious. It's actually glorious.

It is glorious. It is. The first time I had an orgasm from anal sex, I sounded like a fucking train.

I was in there like, whoop.

[44:39] He was like, kids are here. I'm like, fuck them kids. They...

Send them kids to their friends house oh my god i didn't i didn't know what exactly was happening i'm like what my first year i had so here's the thing i had tried anal before i did not like it but with this particular person i said you know let's try it again it's a new person.

[45:10] That first time i said what the fuck is happening to me i have never had an orgasm like that before at that moment like up into that moment i said whoa this is a new ball game that was a new ball game yeah and um i just but those that tried it like and didn't like it i encourage you to try again in a different position, because the positions matter.

Anal Positioning: Exploring Different Options

[45:43] You don't always have to be bent over.

You gotta relax. You can't be tense, right? You gotta be relaxed.

You know, sometimes your mind gotta ride a dick in your ass, right? Like, you can do all types of things.

Yep. You just don't have to be bent over for some man. Like, yeah, you can do different positions.

[46:01] You can have more control over your asshole because being bent over, you're essentially not in control of a lot of things and for the love of god please please please please i beg you all do not use any numbing agents on your ass you have to feel your limits you have to boundaries because you can really mess yourself up if you can't feel what's going on okay and And there are some guys that get overly excited and all they want to do is put it all the way in.

Absolutely not. That's not the goal all the time. So please don't use any numbing agents as it relates to your ass.

That is a thousand percent sound advice. Sound advice.
