[0:58] All right, all right, all right. Welcome to this week's episode.

I'm excited to kick off new episodes in the new year.

And this week, our guest is none other than our problematic fave, Brian.

It's always so hard to recap our episodes and what we talk about because none of the shit is fucking planned.

And that's what make our episodes so great.

But we talk about Houston, then we talk about Baltimore.

Brian breaks down what are hoenails.

I don't have hoenails, but he breaks down what hoenails are.

We talk about spending money, dating. You guys know, just listen to the episode.

Just stick around for the conversation with Brian. All right.

We're going to hop into the pick of the week. The pick of the week.

[1:45] Would this be any surprise to anyone? one motherfucking cat williams okay listen y'all know i do not like long podcast episodes like i rarely have had an episode of the boonie breakdown that's longer than an hour and 15 minutes because it's like who wants to sit and listen to this but baby when i tell you i watched all two hours and 46 minutes of that club shea shea episode with cat williams it was entertaining as fuck and the the thing that has pissed me off since, because now it's been a couple of days and I think that video was at like 27 million views, which is insane in three days for a YouTube video and a YouTube video of that length at that.

[2:27] But what has been annoying and I kind of said this on Instagram like I just understand why now we just can't watch something be entertained by it laugh at it and then move the fuck on why does everything have to be a dissertation and a battle and a breakdown like shut the fuck up everybody and just laugh the shit was funny he's an entertainer do I believe everything that he he said is the hundred percent truth no I think it's probably 70 30 but he's so entertaining, that the embellishment the uh the embellishments is what I'll call them they were so fucking funny that you just couldn't help but like I'm gonna keep it fucking pushing because no do you think this man was reading 3 000 books a year no but did he read a fucking lot yes because I will say the fucking vocabulary was hitting because it was a few words the cat said that I had to fucking fucking Google because I was like what the fuck does that mean like I got it in the context but I had never heard the word before so clearly he uh has a very dense and elaborate vocabulary um.

[3:34] What else I've liked about this, what has spun out of this, is that the Twitter detectives have went straight to work.

They found all these clips kind of backing up where he said people had stolen jokes from him, where Steve Harvey stole jokes from Mark Carey.

And then the best part about it was all of the clips of people who were saying.

[3:55] Cat Williams just handed me $1,000.

Cat Williams helped me when I was down. Jacquees was like Cat Williams like we ain't gonna worry about no wardrobe budget my nigga like here is $15,000 and so all of that to say this has been an entertaining start to the new year it is my pick of the week I will say if you have not watched the interview it is worth watching even outside of of all of the soundbites that have gone viral the whole allegiance to losers oh my god chef's kiss but another quote that he said that stuck with me he said if you wanted me to speak more highly of you then perhaps you should have treated me better and I said whoo cat talking because people want you they try to control the narrative about your story that involved them and that's not that's not their place so treat me better and I don't got nothing bad to say but I do encourage you to go and listen to the full episode if you did because it was more meat to it than the pieces that have gone viral and so that's it for my peak of the week peak of the week that's a peak or pick but that's my pick of the week and uh yeah check it out housekeeping housekeeping come back later Later, please. Housekeeping? Not now.

[5:17] All right. So we're going to go ahead into our housekeeping with the feedback from episode 245 with our responsible fave KG.

You know, we broke down our favorite albums of 2023.

[5:30] And somebody wrote in and said, Boonie, I always love this episode that you do with KG.

You guys always put me on to new music. And I have to say, I have been obsessed with the Anais Cordo song that you guys both recommended as one of your favorite songs of the year. So always look forward and happy new year. So thank you if you have not listened to that episode. It dropped right after Christmas. And I know people were in lazy mode.

[5:55] I wasn't doing shit. You probably wasn't doing shit. but after you listen to this one just go ahead and run that one back um because even we after we wrapped up our music conversation we moved into some other some other things we talked about the ozempic ozempic ain't that the little slogan now um and so just run back and check that episode out all right patreon gang so if you're on patreon gang because i know sometimes y'all be in the portal please go log into the portal i have a poll up because i need some help selecting our next book club read so please please please go over into patreon and log in and if you are not a member of patreon you know we really have that like about patreon is the group chat the group chat is where is that over on discord love it love it love it so um if you want to be in there with everybody who is because i'm just not the only funny one in there people be sharing all all types of shit in there but you know what I am sharing now because I just signed back up for online dating my friend encouraged me because she's like bitch you don't leave your fucking house so how are you planning on meeting somebody so she did my profile on hinge I think yeah hinge and so I have been sharing some of the funny and wild shit that I've been encountering on hinge but I'm only sharing it with patreon gang in the discord so if you want to join you said oh that sounds great then you can head on over to patreon.com backslash the boonie breakdown and you You can support and join for as low as $3 a month.

So let's get ready to break it down.

[8:20] Music.

New Year's Break and Plans for Responsible Episode

[8:29] All right, y'all. So we're back. First episode in the new year. I took a break the first week, but I had to have problematic faith coming first. At first I was like, should I do a responsible episode and just do one by myself? And then I was like, nah, bring in Brian. And then I'll do responsible after that. Hey, Boney. What's good? How are you? Did you have a good New Year? I did. A good holiday season? Yes, I did. A lot of drinking, a lot of smoking, a lot of cigars. Just a lot of relaxing. I didn't really go anywhere, but I had a chance to really just sit back and just kind of relax coming into the new year. Yeah.

[9:12] Not not you're not refreshed no because i feel like that was the whole goal you know overdo the debauchery real heavy so that you could come into the new year like oh yeah but now i'm like i'm tired as fuck you know december for me is always so gluttonous in so many ways right because one is my birthday then it's christmas new year's and i just feel like it's It's all the sugars, all the liquors, all the, it's just that everything is a lot. And this year I made it, went to Houston. And then in Houston, you know, like, I don't know who the fuck we thought we were, but I don't, the earliest night we got in was 1 a.m. Like one night we got in at 5 a.m. We went to one spot, another spot, the after hours. I was like, I just, you know, we had a good ass time. We had a good ass time. It looked like it. I told you, I was like, y'all put the ho in Houston. I was like, y'all put the H-O right in Houston. And it's always funny when I go there, it's always talking to guys. They're always like, you're not from here. You're not from here. And I'm like, how can you tell?

[10:24] One guy was like, oh, you from New York? I'm like, New York? No, I'm not from New York. Most of the people in Houston aren't from Houston themselves. That's the crazy thing. Like, that's like Atlanta, Houston. Houston it's a lot of people who got there who went to college um and they stayed there but a lot of people got to Houston because of Katrina and a lot of other little things that brought them there but they're not usually I guess Houstonians yeah no it is it's so I won't say cute I mean endearing maybe cute's what I want to say but they're so fucking country it's.

[11:05] It's so country but i like the self i like the self it's cool i like southern women um, just uh just the hospitality what i like about houston that we don't have in baltimore is nightlife oh yeah and it pisses me off every time i go and we handle it huh can we handle it I feel like we deserve it I don't know if we can handle it but I feel like we deserve it and I say this because, Baltimore is 60% black and I hate that when you have to go places here it's either hood hood.

[11:46] Or it's white people. It's nothing for... It's hard to find that medium. Yeah. When you do find a medium, it's just a matter of time before it catches on. Yeah.

And so I love that in Houston, it's the spots that everybody go to and it's a mix.

It could be, you know, well-to-do people. It could be the hood.

But it's cool. And my friend who moved there was like, I've never seen a fight here. And I said, because all them niggas got guns.

Like, what's the fight for? I will shoot you. And everybody got a gun.

So it doesn't matter and we watched something was boiling right next to us and i am out of my mind fucked up but i'm trying to like talk to myself like move because if they start shooting because the guy was reaching i was like if he starts shooting i'm next to the nigga he fighting with like i'm gonna die but i was so fucked up like i couldn't sober up i could not move we had way too much casamigos and i'm like jesus i just could not move but then i watched something and it turned me me on because all the like these men who weren't even involved not the people fighting but the men who were not involved they stood up and they were like nah you don't want to do this not tonight playboy like we have and i'm like damn these are motherfucking men right like the men de-escalated the whole situation and then in a moment i was like damn now i'm turned on because.

[13:07] Nothing popped off and they dragged the one nigga out and other nigga went back to party with his hookah.

And I was like, damn, that's how it should be.

Now everybody, nobody had to be worried about getting shot up.

Now in Baltimore, somebody like, oh, I see you.

No, like, oh, who you calling playboy? Like what? Like I just was trying to get y'all to stop.

Now you're getting shot for trying to break it up. Trying to break up the fight.

So yeah. I mean, it would be dope if we could, I mean, if we could have more of a nightlife here, especially like, It's just so promoter-driven, like the spots here.

[13:43] So you go through that promoter-driven type of energy.

I feel like there's some promoter-type-ish when I was in Houston, but I do feel like there's so many people there.

I mean, you can put two or three Baltimores inside of Houston for the number of people that are there that it makes up for a difference. You know what I mean?

It's way bigger. It's way bigger. It's way bigger. but it's like everybody know where to go like on sunday fun day it's like oh man faces 50 15 man chapman kirby they're that like everybody know where to go address still is address still popping i didn't go there it's huge like that place is a warehouse like yeah the line didn't stop.

[14:29] The line didn't stop but um yeah i just feel like baltimore we deserve it now i'm also out of that stage like that's a treat that i was doing all that for that weekend i'm not doing that on a normal basis but it would be nice when we want to go out like oh that's where it comes up so that's where it comes up so when i've had these discussions and i remember um trying to figure out like how sustainable it is you have people in our age group who only go out when it's a treat right so So, if I'm a club owner or a bar owner at 40-something years old, it's hard to say how sustainable this is because I don't know if I could get you and your girlfriends to come hang out at my bar every week.

And maybe it would be a culture shift, right? Like, if there were options, people would go out. Yeah. Maybe not all the time, but they're literally...

[15:25] Here's the funny thing. We go to this, my friend, her friend was like, oh, you can bring your friends with you. She had an ugly sweater Christmas party.

So we go to her ugly sweater Christmas party.

And it was this couple there. And they're like, oh, my God, we just went to Baltimore. We had a great time. Like, we don't know why I get the rap. And we were like, I know.

And she's like, yeah, because we went to the Black Chinese restaurant.

And I'm like, Black Chinese restaurant? She's like, yeah, the Black-owned Chinese restaurant.

And I'm like, what? We're looking. And I'm like, and then she said something.

I was like, the Golden Dragon?

And she's like, yeah, we had a blast in there. And I was like, I would never tell anyone to go to the Golden Dragon.

Yeah, I would either. And that's like, they had a fucking blast.

Tell me about the black owned Chinese restaurant. That's funny.

And that's not even Baltimore. That's strictly Randallstown.

And it's not black owned either. Not at all.

Not at all. I didn't burst their bubble. We were just like, oh, really?

They were like, yeah. Then my other friend from New York who was there, she's like, you ain't never take me there.

And I'm like, no, no, no, no, no. She's lucky they didn't get shot that night.

That's literally what I said to them.

[16:40] So, yeah, all that to say, I do think Baltimore deserves and we deserve it before the white folk take hold of the city.

I mean, you know, I definitely think we have the potential.

Is there it's just tough it's a tough business it's a business that i don't want to get into.

Challenges of Running a Bar Business

[16:59] I'm not interested i'd rather own a laundromat honestly yeah i need stuff that can run without me being there and that's a thousand percent you kind of have to be there um overseeing things making sure things are you know like the money not coming in the front door walking right out at the end of the night you know that type of thing because we got our spots we go to where but we know the bartenders and it's like, yeah, you give her $40, you go for the whole night.

Like, what if that was my bar? I'm like, I just seen you pour four fucking shots.

Like, and you ain't take no money.

It's the math, not mapping. Yeah, it's not. No, yeah.

I wouldn't want to be in that business either, but it's gone are the days.

I'm not driving to D.C. for shit. I'm not.

That's dead. I hate D.C. Honestly, like, driving to D.C., the $20, the $40 valet, when you get there, you gotta get a hotel it becomes a whole event it's a whole ordeal and expensive so yeah that's how I can't do it and for the listeners who don't know, you could probably I could ride my bicycle to DC it's 50 50 to 60 miles so I could ride my bike to DC, we actually had people ride their bikes to DC and roll back it was like a little thing that they did so that's how close it is but the traffic.

[18:19] Um if you can just imagine like something being really close and then it's like the traffic, and then the congestion and while it seems like oh a 50-minute drive for some of you in atlanta like oh that's that's what we do on a friday we ride you know happening part two into the city and then back home like no it's completely different it's you have to do it to understand it but for the listeners who think it's close it's not it's not every black baltimorean has a story of your friends like oh let's party in dc but somebody has to be the designated driver, and you're trying not to get too fucked up or you got too fucked up and you didn't realize you were too fucked up until you hit that darkness of 295 then all the motherfuckers in the car sleep because they drunk as fuck and you praying that you get your asses home safe don't nobody want to do that shit i i don't know what you're talking about the designated driver but because we didn't every time we went we just drank and then we just prayed and we made it back home thank god but that was definitely yeah like is this the risk it's not worth it yeah it's not god we all and 295 seems like it's so dark and no matter if you're in lower columbia wherever you're dark and tree line it's like a tunnel yeah it seems the same it's just like Like the never ending road.

[19:43] You just be like, where are we? Like, are we there yet? And it's just like, you just coming back home.

Oh man. And it's two lanes. And it's two fucking lanes.

Oh man. It's the worst. It is the worst. So don't know if I got time for that shit. So, and just one last thing. We're going to move on.

Baltimore vs DMV: Clarifying the Difference

[20:00] Baltimore is not the DMV for other people who are listening.

Cause we, if you're not here, Baltimore is Baltimore. Yeah.

And the DMV is the DMV because when they say D.C., D.C. is the center most point.

When they say Maryland, they're talking about the counties and the D.C. suburbs.

When they say Northern Virginia, they're just strictly talking Northern Virginia.

They don't say D.M.N.V. is D.C., Maryland, Virginia.

But they're not talking about like Hampton or Virginia Beach.

Like, oh, we in the DMV. No, you're not. You're touching D.C.

Anything touching dc that's all it is like that's not baltimore leave us leave us alone let us baltimore yes i laugh because somebody else i introduced myself and i was like they were like oh you're from maryland i was like no i'm from baltimore, yeah exactly.

Representing Baltimore with a hint of slickness

[20:58] And then when people try to pull i'm from maryland and they're from baltimore i know other day trying to be slick i know you're trying oh yeah you're trying to be boozy fake boozy ass, you don't want it i'll always rep baltimore um but yeah that was my stint in houston i don't know if i'm rejuvenated after the holidays but i know i'm not putting no effort into shit until after mlk day so on january 17th i'll gear back up we're going to ease into this new year, i'm not doing a lot of effort for shit i'm literally dreading you already know like i gotta start school i'm like i know that's what you were gonna say yeah i'm like literally sitting there thinking like what did i get myself i'm over here like i got one syllabus and i've just been going through it and i'm just like every day i keep looking at like god damn.

Overwhelmed by the weight of school responsibilities

[21:55] When i'm telling you when may 22nd comes up and that's the end of the first semester i'm going to have to fucking fool good for you do you need a study buddy anybody want to be brian's study buddy, there's going to be one in the class somewhere there's going to be somebody in that oh you're talking about that's just we're not going to but i do see you got your whole nose you got your baby, whole nails for those on Patreon gang I don't do bad bitch nails she got the baby whole nails I can't I don't know how people function with those motherfucking it's a nice green but it's nothing like the whole nails, I can't do it the long pointy motherfuckers I would kill myself it's the shape so women are like what is whole nails Because I said that before and they're like, what are you talking about? Whole nails is the length. It's the size as far as the shape.

[22:54] And sometimes it's the designs. You know, all of them know how to have designs. There might be one slick-ass design or one glow-in-the-dark. That's just sexy, yo. I love them whole nails. And, boy, you got the little blonde in our braids. If you got any types of blonde in your hair during the year and you wear whole nails, that whole shit sexy. Stay hoes. Stay a hoe. Hold my side. listen I wish I could do bad bitch nails I can't do it like your mama made a hoe you're disgusting, that's my first thoughts like it's time now show me your mama made a hoe man do you say that to women no I said to myself that wouldn't turn me on per se no in my mind I'm like now show me your mama made a hoe so do you like the visual of the nails you like the feel or just the visual it's the visual like i feel like it's sexy like you sitting there talking to a female, she got her nails done she got her hair done you know i like all that shit.

[24:05] I mean, some men don't care about shit like that. You're getting basic bitch shit from me. It's basic bitch nails. But that's not bad because they're done. They're done. They'll be done. They'll just be regular ass nails. That's all I can give you. Yeah, but they look nice. I mean, that's fine. As long as they look nice. I mean, everybody can't run around with those type of nails based on their job or how they live. But whole nails is what it is. And look at it too. Like, they're so fucking expensive. Like, a nigga got to pay for them. I'm sorry.

No. No. I'm not paying for them shits. You like them, you run them. Cash it.

[24:43] Nah. Can't do it. Because when I saw how much women were paying for those, I'm like, what?

You pay $150 every time you get your nails done? Yeah.

$150 for me, nails, pedicure, and a Brazilian.

Zillion i just can't spend that on the nails i mean y'all definitely got your uh, where is it y'all little stuff y'all gotta take care of i mean you know it's a lot by the time you add it up what are you spending money on like that my beard to get shaped up is 30 a week and i'm highly upset like how did we get the i used to spend seven dollars a week now it's like 30 y'all niggas made it a thing so now they can make money off of it i'm like what is going on, so i'm like if i add it up i'm all gray now too like i'm fully like great i love the gray salt and pepper by the time i add up nails pedicure waxes eyebrows facials, i'm trying to think is there anything else i do every month.

[25:54] I think that's it.

[25:57] That's a little like... No, it adds up, but that's why... That could be a path to financial freedom.

Gender roles in paying for expenses in relationships

[26:02] That's why when women... See, that's what... Like my whole thing is, while we on this subject, right? Women will say stuff like, a man got to pay for this, pay for that.

To me, those are your bare necessities, right?

You got to take care of that. Those are the things that you got to take care of.

Now, if I ever want to treat you or I'm in a treating mood, that's when I pop in and be like, here goes some money for your nails or your toes.

Here goes some money for your hair.

I can't be mad at that. But we always kind of charged with paying for the dates.

So that's your job, to get ready, because we got to pay for that nice meal, that nice date you want to go on, drinks, food.

It balances out after you do all of the shit you do.

I feel like if you're treating every now and then, that's fine.

I think it's good to pop up with a little cash app, like, Like, here you go, babe. Like, I know you out getting your stuff done.

But I think the same could go vice versa. Like, if I like it when your hair is cut and your beards line up, I could do the same.

Yeah, I definitely agree with that. Yeah, I don't think that's a big deal. Yeah, I don't know.

I should. I'd rank this one day. Now, honestly, okay, if I had to give things up, nails is the first thing I'm giving up.

Like, if money got tight, nails is out of here. I would still find a way to pay for a wax. I would still find a way for my facial.

[27:25] Pedicures is next i might be in here myself with the little boomer zone yeah i like to get manicures i had one manicure probably like in the last like four months four to five months like one manicure and i was just like that's just not in the budget right now like yeah like if i had to just gotta go like i will i will pay i will literally pay for a manicure every night and cigars and then be like yeah i just don't have money for a manicure, like no priority for one day whatever yes whatever thirty dollars a day literally like thirty dollars a day in cigars i'm trying to get to the point where i could just get out of the i know i'm hoping that when i go to school i just go home afterwards no you're not but in my mind i'm feeling like i'm gonna be so busy that i'm gonna skip going to the lounge you'll make time but that's all i do i don't spend a bunch of money going out to keep and don't know like i'm i'm just saying like going out to eat and doing other stuff.

Oh, no. So, yeah.

All my other service, the last two I would cut would be facials and waxes.

Everything else could go.

But facials and waxes would have to stay. I would have to find the money to make that work.

Waxes. I told my wax girl, you're the safest of all my service providers.

Because the box will be waxed. So, you're safe.

[28:48] Now, I do need to curb DoorDash. trash that habit because it's so convenient sometimes when i just don't feel like it, and it's just me i'm just cooking for one most times so what the fuck the fees are crazy the fees are fees yo you'd be like oh yeah 9.99 22.35 like where do we get there yeah how did we get then it's only 20 so you do it and then you do it 10 times and you're like damn that was 200 hundred dollars this month but you know if i added up how much money i probably spent out on.

[29:21] Like delivery food and like going to restaurants with friends oh my god i'd be sick well see that's the thing that's what i was gonna say i don't do a whole lot of restaurants and restaurant eating that adds up like when i see people at roof chris and out and eating all the time i just feel like oh that bill like that's the last thing you want to do is talk to a chick who won't go out eat all all the time you're like whoa no i can't do it no yeah that's another thing i did tell this guy because he was just saying like i was like you just lack creativity i didn't say it like that but i mean that's what the fuck i told him because he was just saying like what else do you do on a date besides go to a restaurant and i'm like you could do shit like oh it's a lot of shit to do it's a lot i was like you just are not a creative person because you can't think of anything else to do outside of eating. And that is ridiculous.

Exploring alternative date ideas beyond dining out

[30:13] Yeah. And I mean, not every date don't have to be like, we talked about this before.

I don't want to go down a rabbit hole, but every date doesn't have to be $250, $300.

Like sometimes the date can be just going to get a drink, you know, like it doesn't have to always include food, drinks, hanging out.

Now we get this amount amount of money like if you want to date and you also want to be responsible you're not going to keep going out to dinner every other weekend spending two three hundred four hundred dollars you can't you can't well some people can and some people want to make it known that they can i'm just saying that i'm not doing that shit especially when you want to take vacations and you want to plan and do other stuff you gotta be smart about it all right let me ask you this would you do like a third or fourth date, as a trip?

[31:12] Hmm. It depends. The chemistry gotta be really crazy.

And if you have... How long is your trip?

If it's a four-day trip. A weekend, probably.

That's not bad. Not a whole seven days. Four to five days.

I mean, if it's a weekender, I'd probably be cool with that.

Like, if I could just throw something in the duffel and it's a Friday to Sunday, I don't really get a chance to be like, oh, my God, let me get out of here.

Might leave that trip feeling like I wish I had more time.

But in that moment, like, you know, it's just very new. It's very fresh.

It is very new and fresh. Okay. So if y'all had not had sex at that point yet.

I'm not going out of town with nobody I had sex with.

I'm not going out of town when nobody has sex with it's a waste like what if you have sex on the trip that's fine but what if it's awful.

[32:17] What if? I'm just saying. So, it's just like going out of town with somebody I haven't had sex with is setting a bad precedent.

Because at some point, and if I'm paying for shit, like I'm paying for the room, nah, fuck that.

Like, I wanted to be known. We fucking before we leave the zip code.

Like, we ain't going into the school.

So, you, I mean, that's a fair point to say you're not going to go out with somebody you haven't fucked.

Because my thing is, and I don't know if this is the right. I do that a lot.

So I feel like that's that weak shit. It's a lot of niggas who got no game, right?

So they do this weak shit where they be like, oh, let me take you to D.C.

Oh, let's go to D.C. and spend the night.

Oh, let's go up to Philly for a night. Spend some time. Yo, let me take you to Atlantic City.

They don't have no game. So they lead with, let me take you somewhere to stay overnight.

Like, nah, let me try that shit out before we go anywhere. Let me... That's fair.

I'm kind of with you. I probably would not I mean it is a big risk because I would be mad that I'm stuck let's just say you went to Miami right I'm stuck in Miami thinking I'm about to get my back rogue and this shit is weak and then I'm mad at myself because I could have just tested it before we went on this trip yeah and you're stuck in a room every night with like some bullshit you'd be like I would just lie and say my period came you.

[33:46] And see, we can't really lie. It'd just be like, we just kind of could just be disappointed.

And then it'd be like, hmm.

And then we might get a bad rep. Like, oh, that shit was weak.

Like, no, I really ain't like you.

Like, my shit ain't even want to get hard for her. Like, but she might be like, his dick don't work.

Testing the Waters: The Importance of Pre-Trip Communication

[34:07] But like, you damn this, you do. You damn this, you don't. So you're saying test it before you go on the road.

Yeah, you got to test it. I feel like it's safe for both parties to do that.

I'm a firm believer that I don't even think women should take trips with men that they haven't slept with.

Because one, it puts a spotlight on the elephant in the room, right?

So we haven't slept together yet. We both know that. We're getting to the point where the night is winding down.

We've been out drinking, eating. We didn't check in, changed clothes.

Now it's real awkward when it's time to go to bed like i put a line in the bed, no it's like hey you might want to take your luggage off of that other side over there because that's where you're gonna be sleeping ain't nobody telling me that oh my god would you be upset because i think i would be offended even if we had not had sex it wouldn't happen listen i know you're not going but like i would be offended if i went in a room that was two beds.

[35:08] I'm just saying i just know i've heard stories about it happening but my thing is not happening with me i'm too forward my mouth is too too forward i'm gonna say some ignorant shit and i'm gonna let them know before we even get there i don't know i feel like that's a fair stance to take but if i didn't had not and had the let me take this back let me shut the hell up because Maybe I'm lying. Maybe I have done this already.

The Flued Out Dilemma: Does it Count?

[35:41] Whoa, does it count if you got flued out? I mean, if you get flued out, either way, once you get flued out, like, you know.

I mean, I feel like, you know, you getting flown out, the feminists going, get me.

I feel like you. I said it at the last show when I got cussed out.

When we was in New York, when I came off the stage, it was two girls waiting and they were like, oh, fuck you.

Oh, you know, like I was like, oh, OK. It was just like, asshole.

I mean, I, if I'm going on a trip, I'm gathering that I'm going to fuck at some point.

That's my whole point. So my thing is, like, why do we play games as adults, right?

Because my thing is, I would not go, I would not let somebody fly me out that I wouldn't fuck.

Maybe that's how I'm operating.

So let's bring that into 2024.

All right, let's bring it. Stop going on dates and hanging around people and leading them on if you're not going to fuck them.

It's okay to be figuring out. It's okay to try to get an idea of if I like this person or not.

But once you get into that realm of you know this person likes you, you know that they're interested in you, they're spending money, they're doing certain things, they're trying to fuck. So if you're not trying to fuck, stay the fuck home or go fuck somebody you want to fuck. up. Stop fucking a nigga who ain't take you nowhere.

[37:05] And leaving the restaurant with the nigga who took you out to go fuck the other thing. Because that's what the fuck y'all be doing. And we do the shit too.

We do the shit too. Because see, what women do is when y'all be playing the- But you got to overlap, right?

You got to have somebody you fucking on while you talking to them.

You meeting somebody new.

That's just how it happens. Because unfortunately what happens is you're holding out and you're trying to be responsible with your pussy.

So you want to be like, oh, I had a good time. It was nice.

Thank you and then we both call somebody we leave we both call somebody when we leave.

[37:42] Yeah it's like okay and then we finally get to the point where we start up and then there's a there's a decision to be made do we keep that other person or they just kind of filter away but you gotta really like the person at that point you do so i'm like somebody sent me this tweet and And I was like, no, I saw it in somebody's Insta story.

And they were like, this feels like a podcast with somebody.

And I screenshot it. And I was like, me.

And they were like, yes, you got to talk about it. And so this guy tweeted, I love pussy, but I don't like women.

The same way I love ketchup, but I hate tomatoes.

And so I see your face.

[38:27] So when i thought about it it said i love pussy but i don't like women same way i love ketchup but i hate tomatoes and so i related to the tomato part because i have a love hate relationship with tomatoes i will ask for them like today i went out to lunch with mama ratchet and the guy was like lettuce tomato onions and i was like yeah and as soon as i got it i looked at it i was like And I like, I don't want it.

I do feel like, and not even saying the men are gay, I do feel like some men do not like women.

They just like pussy.

[39:09] See, when we say like, I'm trying to understand what we're saying here.

Enjoy the company of women. Okay.

All right. that's different because i was really starting to get nervous like what you're like i think if, i mean i'm sure you i know why they like pussy i mean we like pussy because they got pussy in it that's why everybody exactly but y'all don't like it's like y'all don't like the women attached to the pussy and i'm not saying all men because i do think some men are fine with women but some men I be questioning sometimes like you just don't like women, but you if we didn't have pussies you would not fuck with us, well I think it's I think it's based on, I think it's based on a type, right?

[40:00] So sometimes the type that they're choosing.

So I think sometimes what we end up doing is dealing in a space with a certain type of woman that that's all we ever attract. Right.

So sometimes you're around guys and they just never been around certain types of women. Like they've never been. Like they're the scare in a hose type guys.

[40:26] Yeah. I mean, they like always fucking with hoes or ratchet type chicks.

They don't know what it's like to deal with a chick who has a little sense, a little refined, you know, was sitting there listening to the two guys have a conversation the other day.

And the guy was like, yo, when you going to put me on with somebody?

And he was like, man, every time I put you on with somebody, you say too much and you fuck it up.

He was like, you don't know. He was like, you don't know how to be around women with degrees and education and shit. And then he was like, man, fuck them bitches, man.

Them bitches can get fucked too. He was like, they can, but it's a certain way you got to at least approach them in the beginning.

He was like, they come from our backgrounds and stuff like that.

You can't just approach them with just saying anything out your mouth.

And he was like, so I've reserved you for the hood chicks.

And he was like, yeah, I like a hood bitch.

Bitch but it was just funny listening to this conversation because i was like laughing and he looked over like you know what i mean and i was like yeah i know what you mean like you gotta be.

[41:31] Versatile to deal with different types of women right and some guys only want to deal with that chick who trying to smoke drink you know turn up he was like if the bitch don't know the rap songs I can't fuck with her. It's like, what?

[41:47] So, okay.

Okay. I think it's just based on that type of female.

So a dude probably be like, I'm sick of these bitches, right?

But it's a certain type of bitch he's sick of because that's all he playing. He playing that same.

So men don't have the bandwidth to.

[42:11] Not all men have the bandwidth for the gamut of all the women that they're presented with.

Because they don't. They don't. so that's what makes damn i hate tooting my own horn i really don't but i do oh my god, that's what makes men like me special right if you're well-rounded enough right and i'm not i'm not trying to be funny i really do my own i'm really being serious if you're able to communicate and you're able to have like some type of levels of education with you you can go anywhere you can play in any type of love.

You can go from a chick that's kind of hood all the way up to a chick who's really educated, right?

Whereas some people can only stay in that box of where they from and where their education took them.

Okay, I'm following. So I'm following what you're saying, right?

And I think this goes to a larger conversation.

[43:09] I don't know how to say this softly. Say it. Don't say shit softly.

I feel like women have outpaced men to some degree.

No, you have. You have. And that's, so that's where we come in with that.

And that's what I'm saying, that there's not a lot of men who feel confident enough to even start in some of those circles or conversations.

So as soon as a woman says her title, certain men instantly like get excited.

Like, oh, she do this. Oh, she do that.

Like, oh, she got money or she making money or she's, you know.

So, I mean, men like are really like enamored with like your success.

So they automatically start feeling like, oh shit, like this is a challenge, right?

Because you're in a certain tax bracket or you have a certain title attached to your name versus this just going to be easy because I'm on the same level with her.

And there's so many of y'all that have but there's so many of y'all that have outpaced us on a scale so is this and I didn't even think we was going to talk about this because I didn't think that was going to be your answer, so is that why so many women I know are single right because you no.

Limited Pool for Conversation: Women's Success and Connection with Men

[44:29] It is the same it's not the same that's two different things so what I will say so what I will say is if the pool is limited of who can even have a conversation with you right it's just a numbers game it is a numbers game but with a lot of women who are successful and have reached certain levels, they may they may be missing something in the connection standpoint with men and it's not always just because you're doing so much better it's because i feel like a lot lot of women that you may know probably don't care about dating men that make less than them, they don't care yeah right so if you don't care there's something that's missing in the connection space because the biggest thing where most men complain is oh she had all of this money and these degrees and she was talking down to me if your friends are not those types of people that shouldn't be the issue well let me say not all of them right some people are right because they They feel like I have, you should match me.

And that gets tough, right? Yeah, that gets tough. If I even think about myself, there's not too many men who can match me.

And that's not even, as you just said, tooting my own horn. There's not that many.

[45:44] I don't feel like there's a lot of women who can match me.

So where do you go? Because I'm not, I'm not.

See, that's the thing as a man. I'm not, I'm not as impressed by what a woman makes.

Me either. So for me, it's more so about, do you love what you do? Are you happy?

[46:06] You know, that type of energy. Are you, are you well-rounded enough to be able to enjoy certain things?

Because to me, you don't have to have a degree. you don't have to have this high education, but you're able to go out to a nice restaurant and enjoy yourself and be open to trying things or travel somewhere and being able to do different things.

That's my bar, right?

I don't really care so much to be like, oh, she got a master's from here.

Oh, she's this, she's that. She went to this school.

That don't get my dick hard because at the end of the day, I want to be able to just be able to have fun and enjoy you.

[46:46] All of that That stuff is just a bonus. No, I would totally agree.

Like, I don't need someone to come in here and pay my bills. I do that every month.

I got to do it. That's the thing. Yeah, like, that's easy. I'm already doing it every month.

And we ever decide to get together, we're going to be good because I've been doing this shit by myself for a long time.

A thousand percent agree. So what do you bring to the table in terms of attitude, like, ambition, just the way that you carry yourself, right?

Right. So I'm more I care about those things.

Right. Like I care about you having a proper attitude to be able to just enjoy life and know that when the peaks and valleys come, you're not going to be down in the dumps.

You're going to be able to enjoy life, still be happy, be happy with what we have and not live in a comparison style life where you write about what the next person got or got going.

Conversation about the challenges of finding compatible partners

[47:43] So that's that's it's just two different things but i do feel that i do feel you in a sense that it's less people to have a conversation it is yeah but that's just our community i mean as we continue to try to strive to be better we can't just pop up and think that the men in our community we already know from being on the college campus if it's 15 to 1 that's already letting you know So right then and there, you're outpacing us.

But let's just take it back to what you said, even taking it out of...

[48:15] Qualifications right right because like that's what made me realize this is dumb you're sitting here wanting someone to match you and that pool don't exist so that should even be a factor because it don't exist right so remove that away i still feel like the pool so that widens the pool back up and i still feel like emotionally women have outgrown men to a degree because so many men listen let me finish so many men just have not i'm shaking my head you are you're like no because Because I'll give you a little check because you've at least gone to therapy, right?

There are so many men out here broken by shit and they don't realize it.

And I can't fix that shit.

So I can't be with you. I can't talk to you. The men that I have considered talking to seriously, right?

I also know some niggas I don't even have these conversations with.

I'm just trying to fuck off.

Like, I don't want to be bothered. I already know what it is.

For some of the ones who I'm like I actually like you and we start to peel back the layers and I'm like yeah.

[49:22] So he may listen to this at this point I don't give a fuck I'm just letting you finish because I'm ready I'm working on being a better listener because you've done the work you're what that's going to be right Right.

But no, I'm really I'm serious because you hear some of the trauma that men are holding and I'm like, that's heavy, but I can't help you unpack that.

Right. And I'm also not going to stay in a relationship with you while you choose not to unpack it or sit the shit down.

So go do some work and holler at me like maybe we'll reconnect later.

And in that regard, I do feel like because women are now understanding what boundaries are and what they're willing to put up with and not put up with, that's when I'm saying the outpacing sometimes is happening there.

The struggle of women accepting a real man

[50:21] But I'm telling you, I can name dozens of examples of men who just need to go sit on somebody's fucking couch.

I hear you. And I feel like it's the same with women.

So women are so comfortable being who they are and doing the things the way that they do them that when a real man comes along and challenges huh what's a real man give me a definition for that i mean if you looked it up in the dictionary it might be a picture of me but the whole point is when you got a man who definitely does present and he has his shit together and there's certain ways that he want to run things as a man, a lot of y'all women can't handle.

[51:04] Being led. Okay. So you're used to already paying your own stuff, doing everything the way that you do it.

But now a real man shows up and it's like, you want a man to take the lead.

You want all of these things, but when it actually happens, you're not ready for it.

And that's what I see. I feel like women want a man to be a man, but when he shows up and ready to do that, y'all can't really relinquish your control or power or open yourselves up enough to be criticized and say.

[51:36] Maybe I am doing some things wrong.

Even like in your situation, let's say your situation is a little different because you don't have any children, right?

But a lot of these women don't want you to come in and be a man and explain certain things or make suggestions about the way they're doing certain things, even with raising their children.

People are very sensitive to that. So when you come in as a man, and let's say a woman has a child, there's already certain things like you said, where I'm like, oh, I'm here to just fuck off.

Because I've already had three conversations with them. And I can see that the whole situation is a mess from the way they rear their children, the way that they communicate with their kids' fathers, the way that their kids' fathers might not be present.

Certain things that they've already started down the path of, that just seems messy, and it's just like if I come in and women are thinking like, you know like oh he was just this and he was no we already seen it the writing on the wall by the third date and we just knew that there was nothing gonna be nothing serious because it's a lot to penetrate it's a lot to penetrate.

[52:44] I can yield to that right like especially and I and this is what I have said in therapy myself is that the longer I stay single No.

[52:56] The harder it's going to get for me to let somebody in.

And so that's how it always becomes because you become so independent.

Yeah. It's like I'm doing this. Become dependent.

And that's where, that's my point. So, so many people want to be independent and still be codependent on each other.

And that's where it comes in because it's like, you're so used to doing everything on your own.

How are you going to allow a man to step up and even be able to lead?

Because you're so his strong one.

The desire for men to feel needed and appreciated

[53:26] I do this all by myself. Oh, I don't need nobody for this. I don't need nobody for that.

And at the end of the day, as men, we do want our ego stroked and we want to feel needed.

So it's not just about you always feeling like, well, I got this aspect and I got that aspect.

Like sometimes when you let a man be a man, part of the ego stroking comes from you allowing him to step up and take the lead on certain things.

And some of y'all can't. y'all want to concede to the fact that not even concede is more so y'all want to like live with the idea that we both can do this.

[54:02] I think most women will happily turn turn over that softness they will happily turn it over but they won't allow you to get there for them to even get soft it's for like when when you see it you will right like and as i'm watching some of my friends get to this point with men they're with i'm like that's so dope that they've gotten to the point and he has shown up and consistently shown up for them that they can feel like okay i can drop my shoulders i can relax and i can let him do what he needs to do because i know he got my back right and so i do think it takes uh, when you when that person shows up I think most women will because I don't want to do this shit.

[54:53] And my shit be simple as shit, right? Like, oh my God, let the nigga show up soon because I'm tired of taking the trash out. Like, I don't want to do that.

Right. Little stuff like that. I don't want to do that.

Right. And any nigga who's come in this house knows whether you coming here to fuck off or we trying something.

Take the trash out. Something is getting done in here.

Yeah, but that's fair. I feel like that's fair. Oh, these boxes need to go in the garage for recycling.

Cycling put that trash can out on the driveway when you go yeah something's getting done in here yeah i mean i would love to turn that shit over i'm used to being single and women asking me did you eat do you want a plate you know did you want me pick you up something like at certain points i was used to getting food brought to me to the cigar shop like oh you want to go smoke a cigar trying to show off for the other niggas no never come in you'll never Never let them come in.

Nah, you never let them come in. When you come back in there with that plate, they know your girl gave you that plate though.

Yeah, somebody's looking out. But the only time you let them walk in is if they got to be like, they got to be like a showstopper to the point where like the other fellas is going to be like, yo, who's that coming in the door?

You act like you don't even know. By the time she get to you or you be like, oh, hey, what's up, babe?

Everybody like, damn, who was that? They just want some show off shit.

Like... Niggas are so simple.

[56:19] Like if a nigga ever took you to the barbershop it was just to show you off, it was to show you and then when he leave with his girl somebody in there be like yeah you know i used to fuck her a man used to hit her like oh i know her for such and such that's the fear you run into for taking a chick to the barbershop but the barbershop now is so appointment based that is only two people. You can't do it. It's the person before you.

You know, so you good now. But back in the day, when the barbershop was the barbershop, you come ushering up in there, she might look around and see somebody and you'd be like, how do you know that?

That's hilarious. We call him by his nickname, ATT. He'd be like, oh no, oh no.

Hopeful for a lasting, meaningful relationship

[57:12] That's hilarious yeah i look i say all this to say i'm still hopeful though, but that's good though and that's the thing i think is great because.

[57:25] If you know i'm a hopeless romantic i still feel like things can be are you really i am i am very like my parents been married 51 years i always forget that until you say it so when i so i always always believe that I'm gonna have that person across the table from me playing uno and chess and sitting in the kitchen pouring orange juice you know hey babe you want to go do this oh I'm going to go play golf and then you know you go do your thing and then we watch a movie later like that's the shit that I look forward to like being able to vacation and travel with somebody, like those are the things that I want so I'm never going to give up hope on that because it's like Like, for me, it's not fun to just fuck a bunch of women and be single. Like, that shit gets old. Like, that shit gets old real quick. Because right after you bust that nut, you're like, why are you here? Why are you rubbing on me? But you don't say that. You just be like, you know. But in your mind, you're like, why are you here? Like, that's the feeling that men get. Like, we either want to cuddle with you or we want you gone.

[58:44] It's just it's just facts and you can't control it. So you like ketchup or something like tomato?

I can't have either one because I got acid reflux. How about that?

But the first thing I can have that I get the first thing.

But no, I think it's weird that it's so many men versus women.

Women um it's like a battle of the sexes constantly on social media where men are trying to tear down women women are trying to tear down men um this whole thing where everything is sassy um everything is sassy like from your job title to like oh you sell pharmaceuticals so you walk in the doctor's office with cupcakes that's sassy like i don't know nobody said that, but I could hear somebody saying, like, so you be delivering donuts and coffee and walking in with cupcakes, that's sassy. You know, everything is sassy nowadays.

Like, that's crazy.

[59:48] You know why? You get a manicure, that's sassy. You get your toes done, that's sassy. For me, like, the sassy...

You're mature enough that you can appreciate that, but some women are really coming into a whole, era of everything a man do was so sassy like no i've i've seen the memes but like for me i don't think it's that men are i think the shift there is because men really think they bad bitches.

Men's belief in being the prize and sassy habits

[1:00:18] Like men some men really believe they're the prize and i think that's for me where the sassy coming right like it's not just the you doing little basic shit like for me my basic my only basic sassy measure is, It's blowing hookah smoke. I do not give a fuck. That shit is sassy as shit.

[1:00:44] Like, that shit is... I don't care. I don't like it. I don't like it.

I haven't been to a hookah lounge in a really long time, man.

That was funny because this guy was like, oh, you used to go to the hookah lounge?

And it's like a couple hookah lounges where I live. And they're supposed to be, like, really good.

And I was like, oh, I used to go, but this was, like, pre-pandemic.

Like, right after pandemic, but not really and i was like i stopped going and he was like well why you stopped going and i was like i was dating young girls so i was like i had to go to hookah lounges and he was like oh you smoke cigars i'm like yeah but you gotta adapt so if you got a girl who like 33 and under she's smoking hookah buddy she's smoking hookah and you know all you gotta do is show up with that good a reposado from any type of tequila brand and you got two cups and a little thing of ice you're in there y'all gonna hit the hookah y'all gonna hit the the tequila and you're gonna have a good night i was like that's that's that was like uh that was like the 40 50 date right there like with the young girls you might spend a hundred depending on what tequila you get or how much the hookah is but you get two hookahs two cups some ice some tequila oh man you might need to get a little chaser from there when you get there oh man that was like that was like easy money i hate hookah.

[1:02:09] It's something to do like if see because i'm a smoker it's something to do but i don't do it i haven't done it i haven't done really long time but if i'm out in a club and i can't smoke a cigar, I might just hit a hookah a couple times but I'm not getting my own hookah as a man I find it sassy I don't want to kill people who like hookah because I don't think it's sassy, because it started in the middle east I know where the fuck it started I did it over there that's literally the last time I've done hookah was when I was in Abu Dhabi, and that was 2015 you know what worked for me was those Yes campaign, commercial.

The thing about how bad it is. 45 minutes of hookah was like 75 cigarettes.

I was like, oh my God. I never smoked again. And I was doing hookah like three, four hours. Yeah, I'm like, because I just like, I never wanted to be one of them bitches with their... Like, I never wanted one of those.

[1:03:09] The commercials worked on me, yo. But for real though, I mean, it's not sassy. It's just, it's a vice. I'm sorry. Brian when the it's the way motherfuckers get cute and pose when they be doing a, that is shit be sassy niggas really be posed up making o's and shit like what the nah i'm sorry, that's the only thing that really hits my sassy radar is watching a man in houston these motherfuckers was damn near burning themselves in 50 15 because there was no way to move on the ground and they're like i'm like it ain't that much in the world they looked at us funny because Because with the table, it was a bruh who got us a table.

And he was like, oh, y'all want the hookah? And I'm like, no.

He was like, we were probably the only table that did not have hookah. Yeah.

And I mean, it's just, I don't know. I don't think it's sassy. That's sassy.

It's the way everybody get cute when they be. I know what you mean.

And that's the part where that stuff can be sassy. But I just don't think smoking hookah is sassy.

You just got to be careful when you're turning the camera to you and you.

[1:04:25] And that's the part too because then they got the phone and you showing off yeah maybe it's corny maybe that's what I think maybe it's sassy too but it's all of the above just don't do it around me, you trying to fuck I don't want to see you smoking no hookah would it feel like you hit the hookah while he eating you up no if I go in your house and see a hookah pipe.

High Orgasms vs. Drunk Sex

[1:04:53] Dog, you was about to get some pussy but not no more so you never got hit smoke a hooker no, maybe weed but not like not that definitely had a blunt one time was that relaxing, oh let me tell you for me high orgasms, leaps and bounds beyond drunk sex had drunk sex is the worst it's sloppy and it was funny and it's funny because like.

[1:05:29] I think as men, we do a good job sometimes. Y'all don't realize how good of a job we do, keeping each other on the straight and narrow.

And so this guy, he wasn't even a friend to nobody. He just happened to be out somewhere we were at.

He was like, man, I got this chick. She hitting me.

It's calling me. She hit me. She drunk. I said, man, just go home.

Just go home. I said, that bitch is going to be drunk, and that shit is going to ruin your fucking night, because you already know you shouldn't be doing it.

And then when you see her, she's going to be drunk and sloppy, and the shit is going to be a waste of your time.

And he was like, I ran into him again, and he was like, yo, you gave me some real good advice that night. And I was like, what you talking about?

Because I really didn't know the guy that well. And I ran into him again and he was like, no, no, no, because the shorty had hit me like a day or two later and was like, I was so fucked up. I would have been no good to you.

And I was like, see, see, that shit is the worst. Like.

Yeah, I'm not a fan of drunk sex. It's real sloppy. Now, tipsy is different.

But when you drunk, you fucked up. Like sometimes your head is spinning, like can't keep your eyes open.

Don't want it. but high sex.

[1:06:49] I thought I was having brain aneurysm I was so high, and I like the orgasm was not stopping and the blood I felt like it was competing and my head just was like I was like I'm about to die, you want that feeling again that's the crazy part you just talked about dying But you're looking for that But you're out looking for that I'm looking for love I'm ready to settle down Brian That sounded so fake.

[1:07:27] I'm looking for love I'm ready to settle down I am I put it on my vision board, Okay well you gotta change your ways Not change our ways I just be in the house, I really don't be out in these streets And the house fucking niggas right after you meet them, I'm a lady I'm a lady those are lies ain't nothing wrong with it I mean at some point you gotta fuck but you know it depends, at some point you do it's bound to happen and I think that's the key for me I can't be with nobody that I can't see me fucking them for the rest of my life they could have every box checked off that's a lot, I never thought about it that terms No, for real. Like all the boxes can check.

And for whatever reason, I can't be with somebody who I can't fuck or want to fuck every day.

The Importance of Sexual Compatibility in Relationships

[1:08:25] So you could be out there and you get a perfect resume. You could be the perfect woman. You know what?

I'm saying you're saying that. Yeah, I had it on a paper, nigga.

But the sex was not hitting. Yeah. And that's the part where it's like, what are we doing?

Because if we, I'm going to cheat on you.

So if you got everything lined up and the sex is not that great, I'm going to cheat on you. And I don't want to cheat.

I don't want to cheat. like I'm too old to cheat I got too much I don't have the time to lie to you, play around with you why are you here if I got to cheat on you listen to that group it really gets down to the fact that it doesn't matter if I have to cheat on you you are lacking something right now, we at the 80-20 stage so we at the 80-20 thing where we know nobody's coming with everything right So we have to get that in our minds.

So when I say you're lacking something, you're lacking something to the point where I want to go lay in this woman's bed or have sex with her.

Now I got to cover that up or...

[1:09:39] Make up for what i i don't want to feel like i have to do that if i want to go get some pussy i'm gonna go get some pussy not feel like i gotta cheat on you to do it no i'm just it's too much work it's a lot of work and cheating and it's uh it's a rich man's game where you gotta pay to play you gotta be like you can't just be fucking just a bum bitch who just want nothing this is the thing i tell people all the time i'm not a cheater per se but you gotta cheat with somebody who is just as much as to lose right like oh yeah that's the whole thing so if they even if they got just as much to lose and you're not paying or doing anything you still know that there's something that they can lose where if they get caught that thing i might want to kill you too.

[1:10:34] So it's like the whole thing is like the whole little married couple agreement and all that other stuff like that was the best thing like if you're married oh you should find somebody else who married and happy too and that's what we do and that's how we move around like at a certain point in your life if you realize you really want to be with somebody or see somebody like that it's just not worth it so it's like just be single but most people can't handle that because Because they're in these marriages and relationships to split bills and live a certain lifestyle that they want to live. So they'll just stay.

Right? Me, like you said, I already pay my own shit.

I don't have no living or nothing like that. So if I got to cheat, it's like, what the fuck am I gaining from cheating?

If I want a bitch to come over, I want the bitch to stay the night.

And I had to be like, go, go, go, go, go, go.

[1:11:24] Or, hey, you can't really get comfortable. If I want to really get the bitch, I want the bitch to be comfortable.

Not to be like, oh, yeah, like, I paid this mortgage every month because I'm a sneak bitch. Is that like, no.

If I want to be single, that's what I'm going to do. Yeah. Yeah.

Cheating: Risk, Reward, and Relationship Dynamics

[1:11:40] Yeah, the risk and the reward. It is, but I mean, I don't know.

I just feel like I'm not about to be like Jeezy, like real niggas don't cheat.

That was corny as fuck. I didn't even watch that shit. I didn't watch it either because I couldn't take it serious after I seen it.

When Lou Young did the parody of it. Oh, he's funny.

I couldn't take it serious to watch them two after I watched the way that they made them sound and look. But is it true?

That nia long is a camera camera on no so she was she's seen him at the party oh yeah i don't be following none of these people i'll just be seeing what's adele's boyfriend name oh rich paul so rich paul had a birthday party uh and all the celebrities were there and nia was there and he was like oh my my nia moore from like the letter he wrote her then they ended up taking pictures and he was like, nah, I wasn't like that.

And Mace was like, oh, we thought Braun sent you there to beat her because Braun got into it with the dude, Yudoka, who cheated on Nia.

[1:12:49] So they got into it in the game and he called LeBron a bitch.

So the next week you see Cameron with Nia and they was like, oh, Braun put the call in like, hey, Rich Paul, make sure you invite Cameron up here so he can get Nia.

Yeah but it was like yeah it was crazy it was nothing yeah it was nothing but yeah i don't know man well here's larry brian here's to us finding love in 2024 i didn't say anything about looking for love or anything what you're looking for i didn't speak on any of that my education i'm just going to school nigga line i'm going to school and playing golf.

[1:13:27] Okay we'll follow up I'm getting in my business with your listeners the show getting too big the show getting too big people will be like yeah I listen to the show yeah, he's supposed to be listening I be trying to send it to everybody I know now I'm like nah it's just getting too much so I gotta keep it I gotta keep a level of privacy no keep sending it out the boonie breakdown is getting too big I have to keep a level of privacy while I'm on here year well i'm gonna say this for the first show i was looking at my year of when i could do live so i'm trying to do one baltimore dc in march april time frame.

[1:14:11] Well, I go to school Mondays and Wednesdays, so I'll be good to go. Okay.

And then I'm going to try to do, I was looking at next year like, whew, already I'm tired.

But we're going to pop in some places since I took a long hiatus and didn't do anything last year.

So we'll pop in some places this year.

Okay. I'm looking forward to it.

Happy 2024. It's another year. This is my four or five year.

So I'm turning 45. Oh my gosh, you're turning 40. i'm turning 40 finally i know it's finally because i've been thinking how old are you, like when you get into an adult age finally i'm almost there so you're 85 i'm 84 84 yeah oh yeah 84 40 yeah makes sense, dang you're 45 that's crazy like it felt like it just came out of nowhere i literally felt I felt like I just turned 40 during the pandemic.

I literally just turned 40 right in 2019. It's a blessing.

It is. I appreciate it. I feel like I still like that. Are you going to do a big party?

Nah. I'm saving my big party for graduation in December 2025.

[1:15:30] Everything's about school now. I mean, that's the goal. You got to have that one goal in mind.

I told you, when people was like, why do you want to go back to school?

So I was like, I just want to wear the Omega stuff.

Think I'm around my down. Nigga, goodbye. And I want to bark when I get my degree.

And I want to have a big cookout. Like, that's it. Like, what would you want to do with it? Like, have a big cookout. Like, you don't have a job lined up? Like, nah.
